

Surviving Lockdown - a view from some of our customers

10th May 2020

Customer's at one of our supported Living schemes have been keeping busy with activities and familiarising themselves on the Government advice on Social Distancing and infection control.

We talked about the Coronavirus and how it is important to wash our hands to prevent the spread of the virus.

We made our families cards to cheer them up.

Bingo afternoon.

