

Information for Candidates

Thank you for showing an interest in working for Sunderland Care and Support.

Completing your application:

- Look at each of the criteria on the Person Specification, where the method of assessment is “Application Form”.
- Think about all of your previous experience and give examples of how you have met the requirements asked for.
- Simply stating that you have each requirement will not be considered as suitable evidence and may disadvantage you at the shortlisting stage.
- Remember you can use examples from your work life, study, personal life, voluntary work, social experience, vocational training etc.
